HMS Warrior 1860

- ⇒ Warrior, launched in 1860, was the pride of Queen Victoria's fleet. Powered by steam and sail, she was the largest, fastest and most powerful ship of her day and had a profound effect on naval architecture. Warrior was, in her time, the ultimate deterrent. Yet within a few years she was obsolete
- ⇒ Restored and back at home in Portsmouth, Warrior now serves as a ship museum, monument, visitor attraction, private venue and more
- ⇒ (Several sets of steep stairs but mostly wheelchair accessible: ramp to upper deck, lift to main deck, ask staff for assistance and advice in advance as the ramp can be tide dependent due to steep gradient)

5. Mottisfont National Trust

- ⇒ A National Trust Property with a romantic house and gallery set in beautiful riverside gardens
- ⇒ Ancient trees, bubbling brooks and rolling lawns frame this lovely old house. Crafted from a medieval priory, it is full of surprises, with art that intrigues and delights
- ⇒ Carpets of spring bulbs, a stunning walled rose garden, rich autumn leaves and a colourful winter garden make Mottisfont a feast for the senses all year round. The rose garden in spring is particularly recommended
- ⇒ As well as the house and gardens there is also a café, gift shop, small book shop and river where you can relax in deck chairs and feed the ducks
- ⇒ Most of the grounds are wheelchair accessible, the top floor of the house is not but there are iPads downstairs showing the upstairs of the house and the art exhibition. The staircase may be manageable to people with limited mobility as it is broad with shallow steps and a large banister, it is also a broken stair case every 2-3m
